

The modules

Full details of the content, learning objectives and assessment method of School-based modules can be found here (please note that this information is likely to be updated later in September, so please do check later in the month for the most up to date version). Summary details are shown below. A maximum of two on-campus modules may be chosen from:

Monday 8 January – Friday 9 February 2024

C1 module options: from Monday 09.00 to Wednesday 12.30

Designing Disease Control Programmes (3457)

Economic Evaluation (1501)

This module is equivalent to DL module PHM204.

Method of assessment

Assessment methods for the on-campus modules vary and full details are given in the module specifications. The on-campus modules may be assessed through coursework or a short examination, which will be carried by the end of the 5-week teaching period. (You must complete the required assessment by the specified deadline of the module you are attending.) The assessment you undertake on an on-campus module via the blended learning scheme will be credited towards your overall distance learning MSc degree. The assessment of up to two modules only can be credited in this way. Where a student has registered for an on-campus module that has an equivalent DL module, the student

How to apply

Applications for blended learning (intensive on-campus modules) can only be made direct to the LSHTM. We will notify you via a message on the DL General Zone Noticeboard when applications for blended learning are open. This is likely to be in late October. Please do not submit applications until we inform you the application process is open.

Your application for blended learning study will then be considered by the relevant Module Organiser. LSHTM Registry will contact you to confirm your place on the module. If you have been accepted on the module you will then receive an official offer letter and must then register to take up the place by sending your payment to the School. If your application is unsuccessful and you need to register for a distance learning module instead, you must do this through the University of London Student Portal.

Please note: on rare occasions the School may cancel modules two weeks before the start date, if numbers are insufficient to run the module. In such cases, the School will refund the module fee. The School cannot accept responsibility for accommodation, travel or other losses incurred as a result of the module being cancelled.
